

Kinsale Times

Church of Ireland. Dioceses of Cork, Cloyne & Ross

Kinsale is always a welcoming place. We all know that. On Friday June 14 we were delighted to welcome Bishop Paul, Mrs Colton and a visitor to the diocese Br Tobias to St Multose National School.

At the school assembly the children sang a rap version of 'Yes Jesus loves me' and it delighted everyone who heard them. It was captured for posterity and can be viewed on our Facebook page.

On Sunday June 16, Bishop Paul confirmed six of our young people in St Multose Kinsale.

Many, many thanks to teachers, parents and children. You are all brilliant! Rev Eugene

A retiring collection was made at the Kinsale Voices concert on 15 June last. Proceeds of the concert were divided between the Cork Rape Crisis Centre and The Alzheimer Society of Ireland.

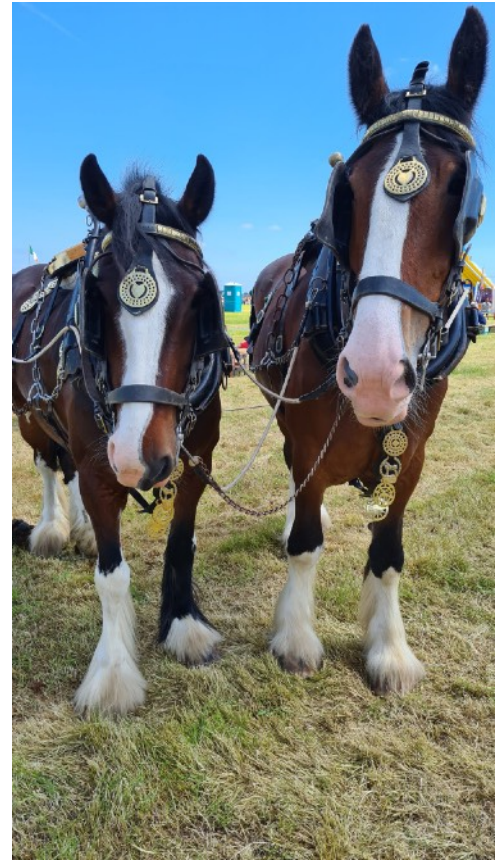

Each charity received €710. Thank you to everyone who gave freely of their talents and financially on the night.

As you all know, our school principal Ms Jill Horan had a baby earlier this year. On Sunday 7 July, Clara Rose O'Brien was baptised in St. Multose, Kinsale. Congratulations to Jill, husband Wesley and big sister Bonnie. God bless you all.

The Belgooly Show

It has been a busy month in Kinsale: many of our parishioners helped organise the Belgooly Show. It was a wonderful day out: Joanna and I had never been to an event like it and we had a ball. Can't wait for next year!

Well done to everyone who made it possible.

Kinsale Voices and Cantabella Children's Choir

We were delighted to host a number of visiting choirs in June: Kinsale Voices (joined by the Kinsale Warblers) who performed in aid of Rape Crises Centre and The Alzheimer Society of Ireland and Cantabella Choir from California who sang in aid of parish funds.

Milestones:

The funeral of Doris Matthews took place in St Multose on 18 June last. Doris was a longtime member of the church choir and an admired and talented artist.

Our sympathy goes to her husband Robin, children Jayne (Barry), David, Craig and Rachel, in-laws Janet, Michael and Liz, grandchildren Gregg, Luke, Sian, Katie, Peter, Brett, Carl and Jamie.

We extend our sympathy also to Ruth O'Connell on the death of her brother, Eldon in the UK. His funeral will take place at a later date.

To all who are grieving someone they love, may God bless you and keep you this day and always.

Licensing of our Diocesan Lay Reader

On Sunday 16 June Bishop Paul licensed Joanna Griffin as a Diocesan Lay Reader. Joanna will continue her training in Moviddy Union with Rev Jean Carney. When this training is completed, she will serve in the Kinsale Union and the wider diocese in the coming months.

God is good!

SPECIAL SERVICES IN AUGUST:

THANKSGIVING SERVICE FOR THE RNLI AND HERITAGE WEEK 2024

2024 marks the 200th anniversary of the founding of the RNLI. On Sunday 4 August, we will give thanks to God for the brave men and women who have volunteered over the years to make this institution what it is today. The service will be in St Multose at 11.30am. Everyone is welcome..

To celebrate Heritage Week (12 -25 August) , this year we will hold a series on tours around St Multose, Kinsale and hold services of Sung Evensong. Please see Facebook and the parish noticeboard closer to the time for details.

Baptism of James Tresillian Santry.

On 6 June, James was baptised in St Multose, Kinsale. James is the son of Emily Acton and Wayne Santry.

God's riches blessing to James and his family today and always.

A date for your diaries!

On Sunday 15 September next, Bishop Paul will celebrate Holy Communion in Ballymartle Church at 10.00am

Did you know that the full name for this church is: Christ Church, Ballymartle. And it was built as one of the 'First Fruits' churches in 1866 and stands beside the ruins of a medieval church.

We can't do it without you!

Over the last few months we have been particularly busy: we have held many concerts, painted doors and churches, planned and brought to fruition the Strawberry Faye. And that's only a few items.

I would like to take this opportunity to say 'thank you' from the bottom of my heart to everyone who has volunteered in any way. We are blessed.

In the autumn, we will hold a special thanksgiving service for all of you.

We have been busy over the summer: painting has begun in Ballymartle and Templetrine and the doors to St Multose have been sanded and painted.

Many thanks to everyone who has made this possible. To Mary in Ballymartle and Christy in Templetrine for sourcing the painters and to Donal for the work done in St Multose.

Strawberry Fayre
2024. A big Thank you!

God's richest blessings to all who made the Strawberry
Fayre such a successful day.

It was truly wonderful! Rev
Eugene
